

PRESS RELEASE

On October 15, 2020, a Broome County Grand Jury dismissed all the charges against Eric N. VanFossen (10/8/1969) of Endwell, New York. Mr. VanFossen was charged by the Broome County Sheriff's Department with Manslaughter in the Second Degree in violation of New York State Penal Law Section 125.15 sub 1, a Class C Felony. The Sheriff's Department alleged that Mr. VanFossen recklessly caused the death of a man who was riding a motorcycle in the Town of Union. A Broome County Grand Jury heard evidence relating to this allegation and found that there was insufficient evidence to bring back an indictment against Mr. VanFossen. All charges arising out of this incident were dismissed.

Mr. VanFossen was represented by Attorney Thomas D. Jackson, Jr. of the Law Firm Jackson Bergman, LLP in Binghamton.
